- ∞ Professor Volker Behr, Universität Augsburg (Germany), will teach Transnational Litigation (January 22 to February 10)

Louisiana Law Review Symposium

Nine of the finest comparatists of America and Europe are invited to exchange thoughts on Law Making in a Global World, in Baton Rouge on January 26 and 27, 2007. The papers will be published in a special issue of the Louisiana Law Review. See the full program at <http://lawreview.law.lsu.edu/> menu 'Symposium'.

Civil Law Workshop

On January 11, 2007, at 4:30 pm (Tucker Room), Prof. J. Vanderlinden will be the speaker on the second session of the "Revisiting the Distinction between Persons and Things" Workshop. His topic is Analyzing Property in Different Societies.

Tucker Lecture

Professor Helmut Koziol, Professor Emeritus at the University of Vienna and Director of the European Center of Tort and Insurance Law (<http://www.ectil.org/>), is invited to give the 34th Tucker Lecture, on March 22, 2007. His topic is: Punitive Damages: A European Perspective.

Graduate Program

The LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center boasts the second best LL.M. offered by any public law school in the United States, which also happens to be the most affordable for students benefiting from financial help (half or full waiver of tuition). The Louisiana bi-jural system offers a unique environment to discover the American common law in a comparative perspective. For more information, visit <http://www.law.lsu.edu/> and click on 'International Programs'.

Summer Programs

In May 2007, the LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center will offer a three-week Summer Program in Argentina, in cooperation with Austral University in Buenos Aires. Up to 30 second year law students will benefit from this new opportunity. The six-week Summer Program in Lyon keeps attracting dozens of first year students.
