The “Austral” Seminar on United States Law

From April 28th to May 1st, 2008, the CCLS welcomes 15 law practitioners from Facultad de Derecho, Universidad Austral (Buenos Aires, Argentina), to attend a seminar on Introduction to the US Legal System. The program, coordinated by Professor Susy Bello Knoll and Professor Olivier Moréteau, is largely based on the very successful seminar offered in May 2005. The sessions are taught by Professor Paul Baier, Professor John Baker, Professor Stuart Green, Professor Cheney Joseph, Professor Alain Levasseur, Professor Saúl Litvinoff, Professor Olivier Moréteau, Mr. Agustín Parise, Professor Ed Richards, Professor Jack Weiss (Chancellor of the Law Center), and Professor Alberto Zuppi. Some visits are organized, including to the McGlinchey Stafford Law Firm and the Supreme Court of Louisiana.

Conference Notes

Professor Olivier Moréteau, Russell Long Chair, presented a paper on “The Frontiers of Law and Language” at an international conference hosted by the Italian National Academy “dei Lincei” in Rome, on March 12th and 13th, 2008. The general theme was “The New Ambitions of Legal Science: Legal Anthropology and Legal Traductology.”

On March 28th, Professor Olivier Moréteau presented the French Report at the 7th Annual Conference on European Tort Law, organized in Vienna by the European Centre of Tort and Insurance Law and the Research Unit for European Tort Law of the Austrian Academy of Sciences.
