

CURRICULUM VITAE

Howard W. L'Enfant

Education

|      |        |                                                                                                                                      |
|------|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1963 | B.A.   | University of Notre Dame                                                                                                             |
| 1966 | L.L.B. | Law School, Louisiana State UniversityEditor-in-Chief, Louisiana Law ReviewOrder of the Coif, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Fraternity |

Professional

|         |                                         |                                                                                    |
|---------|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1966-69 | Private Practice                        | New Orleans, Louisiana                                                             |
| 1966-69 | Assistant Professor                     | Law School, Loyola University – New Orleans, Louisiana                             |
| 1969-71 | Assistant Professor                     | Law School, Louisiana State University – Baton Rouge                               |
| 1971-74 | Associate Professor                     | Law School, Louisiana State University – Baton Rouge                               |
| 1974-76 | Visiting Professor                      | Law School, University of Kentucky – Louisville                                    |
| 1976-   | Professor                               | Law School, Louisiana State University – Baton Rouge                               |
| 1978-79 | Acting Associate Dean                   | Law School, Louisiana State University – Baton Rouge                               |
| 1979-80 | Vice Chancellor                         | Law School, Louisiana State University – Baton Rouge                               |
| 1979-00 | Reporter                                | Continuing Revision, Code of Civil Procedure Committee,Louisiana Law Institute |
| 1984-86 | U.S. Magistrate (part-time)             |                                                                                    |
| 1988-   | Henry Plauche' DartProfessor of Law |                                                                                    |
| 1997-98 | Interim Chancellor                      | Law School, Louisiana State University – Baton Rouge                               |
| 2001-02 | Self-Study Survivor                     |                                                                                    |

Work(s) in Progress: Civil Procedure Article 1153 and Literature Prescription