Experiential Learning

The students in the parole clinic had a successful semester. The Clinic represented twenty-two clients on parole or clemency between August and November. Of these, sixteen received a favorable decision. All of the Clinic's clients had served at least twenty years in prison with most having originally received a life sentence.

Coming in February

Feb. 5: JELR Symposium (virtual)

Mardi Gras Holiday – Tuesday, February 16 ONLY. (Students will have a mid-semester break on Friday, March 12; Law Center offices will be open on this date.)
